THANKSGIVING DANCE

The Commuters' Board, headed by Billy Benson, sponsored a Thanksgiving dance on Tuesday, November 4 from 8-11:30 p. m. in Parkinson Gym. "Love or Confusion," a local group, supplied the music for the largest attended dance this year.

Maureen Grier was in charge of invitations; Raymond Marhetka and Bill Benson, decorations; and Louis Paradisc, posters. Members of the Commuters' Board worked at the door.

Financial Setback Dealt Teacher Corps

Washington (CPS) — The Teacher Corps has received such a severe financial blow that it may not be able to recruit a new group of interns for the summer and fall of 1968.

The blow came this week when Congress passed and sent to President Johnson the appropriations bill for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare. The bill included only $13.5 million for the Teacher Corps, far less than the $33 million requested by President Johnson and Teacher Corps officials.

"This is certainly not expansion money. It isn't even

Over 100 Attend Vietnam Rally

Biting winds and a freezing temperature did not lessen the enthusiasm of approximately 100 students assembled in front of Palmer Hall on Wednesday, November 15 for a Support Our Boys in Vietnam rally.

Organized by a group of girls from Palmer Hall, the rally was planned to inform our men in Vietnam that there are people, regardless of their stand on the war, who are concerned with the welfare and morale of the U. S. combatants.

Speakers introduced by Ilene Scanlon and Susan White were Mr. Thomas Clifford, Mr. Eric Hachey, and Mr. Louis Lorenzen, a member of the faculty.

Mr. Clifford spoke of the duty that our boys have accepted in the service of their country and of our duty to support them in their convictions.

Eric Hachey, who recently completed a tour of duty with the Air Force in Thailand, commented on the discouraging effects that newspaper and radio coverage of anti-war demonstrations had on the morale of the soldiers. As a countermeasure to the protests Mr. Hachey told the audience: "Do something. Don't just sit back and watch! Show that you care."

The last to speak was Mr. Lorenzen, a Korean War Veteran. He stated that "war is a national result of the lack of planning by world leaders. If these people are out there fighting for something that is a way of life here, it is our purpose to rationally support them."

An announcement was made that a container for donations to purchase needed items for our soldiers would be placed in the Campus Spa for three days.

At the weekly SGA meeting on November 20, Financial Committee Chairman Paul Celuzza announced that the committee had decided against permitting Alpha Phi Omega to conduct an Ugly Man On Campus contest. At the same time a request by Fenwicks to sponsor a canned food drive was denied.

Next, Paul Celuzza passed out sheets describing the day, committees, and hearings for the Constitutional Convention. During the convention, tentatively scheduled for either late February or early March, five or six Constitutional Committees will discuss and prepare sections of the Constitution for the final draft. These committees will consist of members of the SGA and the student body at large. Each of these committees will conduct an open hearing some two weeks before Convention Day on which the work of the committees will be discussed. It is hoped that the students will take an interest in both the committees and the convention.

The following order of business was the reading of the second letter from the editors of the Kampus-Vue declining the SGA's invitations to attend an SGA meeting to discuss the paper's problems and activities. After the letter was read, Tom Christensen elicited suggestions for the next course of action. A motion stating that council members attend the next Kampus-Vue staff meeting as previously offered by the KV editors was forwarded and then approved.

SPAGHETTI HAPPENING

The junior class invites everyone to a Spaghetti Supper on Monday, December 11. From 5-7 p. m. tons of spaghetti will be served in the Commuters' Cafeteria. For the small fee of 99 cents you will be feted at this banquet before the home basketball game that night.

Rich Maiolo, chairman of the School Vacation Committee, reported the committee's plans to meet with President James Hammond on Wednesday. After Rich asked for topics to be discussed at the meeting, someone requested that the problem of returning in the middle of the semester break be presented.

Under new business, the vice-president of the glee club requested permission to charge admission to non-college people attending the club's Christmas production. Admission would be one dollar for adults and 50 cents for children under-13. The council decided that this was allowable because the students would not be charged. Otherwise, this would violate the SGA's rules for charging.

Junior class President Don Burnham then asked permission for the junior class to go before the Financial Committee in relation to a planned spaghetti supper to take place in the Commuter's Cafeteria on December 11. Permission to charge 99 cents will be asked. The request was approved.

The remainder of the meeting consisted of a discussion of the SGA Constitution. It was brought out that no constitution had been accepted this year. A motion was then made to accept the old Constitution until the formation of a new one excepting that any parts conflicting with the present rules would not be adhered to. This motion was tabled until next week to give the council members time to examine the Constitution. Finally, a motion to use the old Constitution for the last segment of the meeting was made and approved.

NOTICE

Please note the following change in Christmas vacation period.

The college will close on Friday, December 15, 1967 and reopen Tuesday, January 2, 1968. There is the likelihood that the days lost may have to be made up at a later date.

three-man board in the last six and one-half years. While adverse rulings by the national board have involved less than one-half of one percent of the estimated 15,000 draft-eligible men to have served in the Peace Corps, "virtually all of these have occurred in the past year," he said.

Of the approximately 25 Volunteers who have already returned to the United States for draft induction, two were disqualified for physical reasons and returned to their overseas assignments.

The vast majority of Peace Corps Volunteers are granted deferments for two years of overseas duty because their service is deemed by their local boards to be "in the national interest," as recommended by Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, the draft director.

Vaughn Favors Deferment For Peace Corps Volunteers

Washington — The Peace Corps announced today it will intervene on behalf of Volunteers seeking draft deferments for two years of overseas service.

Agency Director Jack Vaughn, concerned by mounting induction calls to Volunteers serving overseas, said he will take an "active role" in seeking future deferment cases before the Presidential Appeal Board — the court of last resort for draft reclassifications.

In the past the agency performed a largely informational function — advising Volunteers and trainees of Selective Service laws and procedures and confirming to local boards the fact of the Volunteer's service.

In future appeals, Vaughn will write letters to the board describing the circumstances in each case and urging board members to grant a deferment until completion of the Volunteer's overseas tour.

"We have a serious situation," he said. "The problem of induction notices to overseas Volunteers is becoming a major concern for us. Pulling a Volunteer off a productive job at mid-tour is unfair to the nation, the host country, the Peace Corps and the individual."

Vaughn said Peace Corps Volunteers have lost about 60 deferment appeals before the

STUDENTS DESERVE MORE

Our student council has been operating for the last ten weeks without benefit of a constitution and a leader. Our council president has been presiding over these meetings with the knowledge that there was no constitution and with little visible intent to remedy the situation. Our elected president has been content to lead the deliberative body at his pleasure and according to his whim.

We should be thankful that at the November 20 meeting of the council several concerned representatives decided to take action on the constitutional question and proposed the acceptance of an interim constitution. This action was taken without the support of the council president.

Our elected president has stated on several occasions that if he did not meet the measure of his post, he would resign — in fact, that he should be asked to resign. We are now suggesting that he consider those words and take action. Either he provide the leadership the council and student body deserve, or he should step aside to allow someone who is willing and capable to take over.

AN UGLY AFFAIR

It is unfortunate that the first sign of political awareness demonstrated by the student body should be founded on hastily drawn misconceptions. There is currently being circulated a referendum to force the SGA to allow APO's UMOC contest on campus. The brothers have acted within their rights to seek such a referendum but, it appears that they have failed to find the reason for the veto recommendation of the Financial Committee of SGA. The committee noted in its recommendation "... the lack of guidelines to effectively control the type and number of charitable drives. . ." and that the committee "... recognizes the need for a definitive policy on the matter and intends to formulate a policy. . ." These statements hardly sound like a vindictive plot to deny APO and the Fenwicks from soliciting goods for needy causes.

It would have been more advantageous to the APO's and the student body if the APO's had assisted the Financial Committee in establishing a policy of definite procedure whereby worthwhile causes could be sponsored by on-campus organizations to the mutual benefit of the sponsoring organization and the student community.

DRAFT DEFFERMENTS

However, some local Selective Service boards refuse deferments even though Peace Corps service does not relieve Volunteers of their draft obligations. If the local board is upheld by the State Appeal Board, the case may reach the Presidential Appeal Board which makes the final decision.

The appeal process often takes months to be resolved and the Peace Corps frequently sends Volunteers to their overseas sites while their appeals for deferment are pending.

Vaughn said the Peace

Financial Com. Makes Report

The Financial Committee of S.G.A. met on Monday, November 20, 1967 from 4:00 to 6:00 p. m. The agenda included the A.P.O. sponsored "Ugly Man on Campus Contest" to raise money for the United Fund and the Fenwick Canned Food Drive to collect canned goods and money for needy families of Fitchburg.

Both of these groups should be commended for the hard work and thoughtfulness reflected in these two drives. However, after two hours of discussion and debate, the Financial Committee voted to reject these two proposals. The Committee's decision should not be interpreted to signify mere disapproval of the two proposals at hand. The Committee's decision was based on the principle behind the issues, not the issues themselves.

The following is an official statement from the Financial Committee explaining their decision:

"These proposals were rejected because of the lack of guidelines to effectively control the type and number of charitable drives on campus. The Financial Committee recognizes the need for a definitive policy on the matter and intends to formulate a policy in the near future."

By the time this issue of the Kampus Vue has been printed, the Financial Committee will have already been working on such a policy. An open hearing, to which all interested students will be invited, will be held as soon as the Financial Committee can come up with a proposed policy. All interested students should look for notices announcing this hearing. The Financial Committee also invites all suggestions and comments recognizing that this policy will determine the fate of such drives in the future.

When this proposed policy has been formulated, it will go to the Council for approval.

Paul Celuzza, Treasurer S.G.A.

TEACHER CORPS

hold-even money," a Teacher Corps official said.

The source said the bill will not finance the Corps past next June 30. "There will be no money for us to go beyond the 1900 Corpsmen we now have, and we will lose 900 of those at the end of this school year."

The Teacher Corps, which sends college students working on their master's degree to teach in slum schools, is just one of many Federal agencies which have suffered because of pressures on Congress to reduce spending. Congress extended the controversial Corps for three years this past summer, but now has not supplied it with the funds to meet the needs of urban and rural slums.

Even though the Corps can be saved by a supplemental appropriation next year, much of the damage to the program already has been done. Colleges and universities will be unable to plan their training programs, and local school systems will not be able to count on a supply of corpsmen for their schools. Most local school systems begin hiring teachers around the first of the year for the next school year.

In addition, the shortage of funds probably will keep potential corpsmen from applying.

The $13.5 million for the Corps was recommended by a Senate-House conference committee. The Senate originally had voted to give the program $18.1 million, but the House had voted no funds for the Corps. The compromise was accepted by both Houses with little dispute.

The Corps' appropriation is included in the $13.25 billion bill which Congress passed for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare.

The bill contains $12.56 billion for HEW, an amount $141.2 million below the Administration's request, but $249.3 million above the HEW appropriation for Fiscal 1967. For the U. S. Office of Education, the bill appropriates $3.88 billion, a decrease of $63.6 million from the budget request for the new fiscal year, and a decrease of $9.1 million from 1967 appropriations.

OBITUARY

DIED: The Student Government Association at Fitchburg State College, of confusion, frustration, and lack of leadership. The SGA has been bedridden since the illness was contracted at the beginning of the academic year and was sinking into a deep coma. It is survived by 1,750 unprotected students, a nationally focused student publication, and an undaunted and unchallenged administration.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by the student body at large. Calling hours will be during the All-College period for the students on Tuesday, and immediately after the Faculty Committee meeting for the faculty on Wednesday.

Placed beside the burial encasement will be a pamphlet on the achievements of the SGA along with a four-volume series on what the organization had hoped to accomplish this year and accompanying tapes of some memorable meetings.

Burial services will be conducted by the four class officers under the direction of the administration. A few words will be said by Henry Roberts of Roberts Rules of Parliamentary Procedure. Pallbearers will include a representative from all social clubs on campus. Attendance is required.

Donations are presently being requested in the hopes of building an SGA Memorial Fund to be used to help the student body.

THE ROUNDER'S EXPRESS

This is a derogatory statement about a record that I've been hearing frequently. The record is called "An Open Letter to my Teenage Son" recited by Victor Lundberg on Liberty Label. Mr. Lundberg, in his "letter", spouts homilies and cliches to his young son in the most pompous manner imaginable, against a hack arrangement of "Battle Hymn of the Republic".

As the record progresses and the "Battle Hymn" gets more and more militant, the message becomes more and more politically one-sided. Every promise Mr. Lundberg makes to his son in the name of "freedom" and "justice" is followed by a statement or threat that contradicts what he's just said.

For instance, "Wear your hair long, boy," he says, "as long as you're doing it out of respect for those other long-hairs, G. Washington and A. Lincoln. . ."; and, "of course you have reason to suspect that God may be dead, and my generation may have helped put that suspicion in your mind, but you better believe as I do."

Now, I'm not suggesting that Victor be forbidden to express his right-wing viewpoint. Certainly, if protestors are allowed to sing out their feeling, then he has a right to be heard too.

The record attacks any non-conformist, non-rightist attitude today. It is being played on the rock and roll stations, so obviously the target is youth. Mr. Lundberg makes the maddening assumption that, because a young person wears his hair long, questions God, war and peace, he is repudiating his country. Take the following quotations from the record which makes anti-war youth synonymous with Communism: "If you doubt our free enterprise system in the U. S. is worth protecting . . . if you doubt that each free individual should reap rewards commensurate only with his own efforts, then it is doubtful you belong here."

I have too much respect for committed, searching, dedicated young people to enjoy hearing their efforts exploited and insulted in this way.

Co-Captains See Successful Season For FSC 'Falcons'

As the start of the 1967-68 basketball campaign nears, the Falcons, led by co-captains Gary Nelson and Tom Kirklauskaus, are determined to improve upon their 7-12 mark of last year. When asked to comment on the outlook for the current season, Gary and Tom both felt this season will be a successful one, due mainly to the spirit which Coach Lee Cunningham has ignited among the team members. They also feel that if they play the type of defense which Cunningham has stressed, they should be able to win a large percentage of their ball games.

Offensively, Cunningham will favor the 1-3-1 system with senior Barry Finneron most likely to get the nod as the starting playmaker. Don Kelly, a junior, will keep Finneron on his toes. Bruce Fisher, the most versatile member of the squad, and Dave Locke, a pleasant surprise thus far for the Falcons, are probable starters at the wing positions, with Kirklauskaus at center and Nelson underneath.

Pat Murphy, an aggressive rebounder, Phil Lagerstrom, a freshman who shows potential, Mark Southworth, a fine shooter who will help out off the boards, and Jack Cunningham, a 6'-6" center who has just joined the team, all are expected to see considerable action.

The KV sports staff encourages the student body to attend Friday's opening game against Keene State.

EDITOR'S NOTE

I would like to take some space on this page to explain this page. The deadline for presenting articles for an issue of the Kampus Vue is the Tuesday of the week prior to the publication of that issue. As a result most of the articles are somewhat dated. Since the amount of space on a page dictates the size and type of an article, many of our reports are short and to the point. There are many other mechanical problems that also arise; some that can be controlled; others that cannot. As a result of this, the sports page will be doing some catch-up writing throughout the year. A good example was a football game in the last issue that was three weeks late.

I would also like to say that the sports page is "an open forum, and in keeping with its free policy, welcomes any commentary." All such articles should be addressed to the sports editor of the Kampus Vue. J. C.

Vaughn said, "So long as the chances for deferment are good this system makes sense, but as more and more Volunteers lose their appeals we may have to reconsider the process and keep them, a wasting asset, in the United States until their cases are resolved."

He also said induction calls for Volunteers overseas "disrupts the continuity of carefully planned projects by host country governments who also have invested a large amount of time and money in the program."

Vaughn also noted that in a number of cases, host country governments have been unable to replace drafted Volunteer teachers.
